Explanations For Applicants

The Pennsylvania Outdoor Writers Association – Willard T. Johns Memorial Scholarship honors the memory of Willard T. Johns and recognizes outstanding students who are planning public relations or journalism careers to relate the principles of conservation and the attractions of the out-of-doors.

Preference for this scholarship shall be given to all full time junior and senior students enrolled in one of the following curriculums:

Pennsylvania State University

- Forest Resources Program within College of Agriculture
- Writing Option within the English Department of the School of Liberal Arts
- School of Communication's Journalism Program
- College of Agriculture per se

University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown

- The Terrestrial Ecology Option within the Biology Degree Program in the Natural Sciences Division
- The Journalism Degree Program in the Humanities Division
- Writing Majors in the Humanities Division

Recipients should show strong evidence of academic achievement and display financial need. It is the expectation that four scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each shall be awarded annually. Each scholarship shall be awarded for one year but may be renewed for an additional year if a recipient continues to meet the conditions of eligibility. Renewal of a Scholarship will require a new application and standard screening review.

Members of POWA, including all six classes of membership, and their families are disqualified from making application and will not be accepted as scholarship recipients.
