Lodging Details at Hickory Hall, Mansfield University

The POWA Conference will be headquartered on the fourth floor of Hickory Hall on the Mansfield University campus. There are four different units available. The cost per person per night is the same for each unit -- $40 per person per night. There are limited numbers of each unit on the fourth floor; we can, however, move to similar units on other floors once the fourth floor is full. Hickory Hall is fully handicapped accessible with an elevator.

The rooms include beds, dressers and desks, as well as other amenities such as individual bathrooms in each suite, individually controlled air conditioning and heating, microfridge units, and high-speed wired and wireless internet connectivity. The rate stated is for either single or double occupancy, as well as linens. The linen package includes a fitted sheet, a blanket, a pillow and pillowcase, and two towels.

When making your reservation, please specify, by Unit Number, which room you are requesting.

Visit the Mansfield University website to register: (<https://ssl.mansfield.edu/cll/hickory-housing.cfm>). (If possible, please use the website to register; if you have difficulty or any questions, please call Student Living & Community Programs office at (570) 662-4932. You can also call the Student Living office with questions.
